Romans: Law and Grace

Livy states that Hannibal deployed Macedonians in the second line, which is normally rejected as Roman propaganda, though T Dorey suggested that there might have been a seed of truth in the story if the Carthaginians had recruited a trivial number of mercenaries from Macedonia who had gone without official blessing [9] Scipio deployed his army in three lines: the first line was composed of the hastati, the second line of principes and the third line of the triarii. This is simple and does not require laws, discussions, blogs, group discussions, parents, or lawyers.
